

LOCAL HAPPENINGS.

Items of Interest Gathered Around
Las Vegas and Vicinity.

FROM TUESDAY'S DAILY

PERSONAL.

J. S. Clark left for the south.

Alex. Levy, of Walsenburg, is in the city.

Dr. J. P. Kaster was in the city, yesterday.

Dr. B. M. Williams and wife have gone to Denver.

E. H. Barker, commercial traveler, left for Denver.

A. M. Adler came in at noon, from Wagon Mound.

Mrs. O. A. Wheeler is in Denver to attend the festival.

Serapio Romero is in the city after a fatiguing trip receiving sheep.

Perry Earickson left Carrollton, Mo., last week, on his journey to Puerto Rico.

A. T. Bruno and wife came in from Gascon on a visit to relatives in this city.

J. V. Consaul and Mrs. E. B. Consaul are in Denver, to enjoy the festival.

H. H. Wheelock, the hardware salesman, is in the city on a brief visit to his family.

Mrs. C. McCaddon left on the early train for eastern points, on a visit to relatives.

J. Weltner and Col. E. H. Bergmann returned to Santa Fe on delayed No. 17, yesterday.

H. D. Reinkin, Watrous merchant, came down yesterday and returned this morning.

Mrs. T. Bruno left on No. 17 for El Paso on a visit to her daughter, Mrs. Luis Martin.

Horace Palladino returned from Albuquerque, where he had been attending the fair.

A. Maloney has gone to Raton, where he has a contract for the plastering of the new court house.

W. F. Warner is again in the city after a visit of several months to his people in Missouri.

Miss Florence Hillman, cousin of Mrs. Jake Block, has returned to her home in Philadelphia.

Wm. Frank came in yesterday from Los Alamos, with his two children, for the purpose of placing them in school.

E. D. Hager and E. K. Naylor, Tepeka, Kas.; E. E. French, Albuquerque; are registered at the Central hotel.

R. C. Chace, Philadelphia; C. B. Woodward, Kansas City; F. E. Flagg, New York, registered at the Central hotel.

Miss Lottie Gray, daughter of the local manager for the Postal telegraph company, has gone to Denver to attend school.

Mrs. James McFadden, of Waterville, Kas., sister of Miss Della Odel, is here on a visit to her sister and Mrs. W. R. Kletler.

Dr. J. M. Cunningham returned last evening from Kansas City, to which point he accompanied Miss Minnie Egbert on her journey to her home, at Goshen, Ind.

C. C. App is back from Albuquerque and will shortly leave for Puerto Rico, to engage in photography, as a profession.

Dr. Geo. W. Harrison, wife and sister-in-law, Miss O'ero, were among the Albuquerqueans who passed through for Denver.

Miss Nettie Gerrard left this morning to take a position in the Clayton post-office, for which she is unusually well prepared.

Miss Ida Wanders, the lady clerk at Brooks & Co.'s, has gone to Raton where she will hold a similar position with the Block firm.

Jim Barton, drummer, stopped over in town for twenty-four hours, his trunks having been left behind at some down-country point.

W. H. Robeson, Washington attorney, left in return to the Capital City. Mr. Robeson had been here taking testimony in Indian depredation claims.

C. W. Reyns, Topeka; C. S. Onderdonk, Lamy; J. B. Custer, Topeka; A. Levy, Walsenburg, Colo.; E. R. Monk, Tucson, A. T.; J. H. Barton, Kansas City; H. D. Reinkin, Watrous, registered at the Depot hotel.

M. M. Smith and wife have gone to Albuquerque. They had been employed by THE OPTIC, he in the job department and she in the composing room, for a number of months, and this paper wishes them success in their new home.

Isidor Armijo, recently editor of El Progreso, at Trinidad, and previously a correspondent of several papers from Mexico, is in the city and will go to El Paso with Felix Martinez, to have charge of Mr. Martinez' office in that city.

Agapito Abeytia, Mora; C. T. Heinen, Rochada; Leandro Lucero, Villamora; Rev. H. L. Gouillon, Geronimo; C. I. Onderdonk, Lamy; C. J. Eames, Jr., Galveston, Texas, and John T. Fitzsimmons, St. Louis, registered at the Plaza hotel.

J. Y. Lujan and wife, San Ignacio; J. F. Mulhern, Raton; B. P. Williams, Baldy, N. M.; F. D. Jandell, St. Paul; W. M. Clayton, Albuquerque; Wm. Cooper, Raton; J. L. Todd, Chicago; L. P. Curtis, Denver; are registered at the New Optic.

LOCAL.

Ernest Bloom is much better, being able to sit up in his room.

The board of County Commissioners met this morning in regular monthly session.

The Democratic county convention will meet at the Court house tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock.

M. Blauvelt will open his new barber shop, next to the post office, about the middle of the month.

Mrs. Isidor Stern and family wish to thank their friends for appreciated kindness in their recent bereavement.

Judgment for $496 has been entered against Wm. Hoberg, of Watrous, in favor of Essinger & Judell.

Miss A. B. Harrison, who had been employed at the Montezuma hotel, Hot Springs, having gone to Greeley, Col., to attend on a sick sister, A. W. Edes, of Boston, Mass., has been appointed cashier for the institution.

The fare from this point to Deming and return, for those attending the Democratic Territorial Convention will be $14.55.

While J. B. Mackel is in Denver, E. P. is running the old town place, and Ralph Oldham is assisting Griff Roberts on the East side.

Three sections of No. 17 passed through Sunday night, transporting regular soldiers to points in Arizona and Southern New Mexico.

Max Brooks and Jake Block have completed the moving of their stock of goods to Raton, and THE OPTIC predicts the firm success in that enterprising town.

New subscribers are being added daily to THE OPTIC's circulation list. Now is the time to send in your name and get the latest election and all other kinds of news.

A decree of pro confesso, in the case of Geo. W. Harrison and others against Geo. W. Stonerod and others, has been entered in the suit relative to the Preston Beck grant.

The Las Vegas military band, which has gone to Denver, to participate in the great festival of Mountain and Plain, will have their headquarters at the Gilay House.

B. F. Forsythe is putting up a stable on the rear of his lots, Centre street near Grand avenue. The stable will be iron clad, and used by Mr. Forsythe for his own horses and buggies.

B. M. Donaldson, the delivery agent for Wells-Fargo express company, has rented the Herzog cottage, Eighth and Lincoln, and his family have arrived from Cerrillos.

A new arrival on the train was seen working up the street, yesterday, with kodak and gun. He was evidently ready for all that should come—snap shots or long range fire.

R. T. Long, brother of Groceryman W. T. Long, has concluded to locate here, having secured the Teats house on Blanchard street, expecting the arrival of his family in a few days.

Roy Schrader, who was employed at the Antlers' saloon, left suddenly last Saturday night, and his whereabouts could not be learned till today, when it was ascertained that he had returned to Albuquerque. As far as known, Mr. Schrader did not leave any debts behind him.

Note the new advertisement on third page of W. L. Kirkpatrick & Co.'s plumbing establishment. H. A. Johns and W. L. Kirkpatrick are both well known in this city to be hard workers and hustlers, and THE OPTIC predicts for the young men success in their new venture.

Night prowlers broke into the room occupied by J. F. Stewart, on the west side, Saturday night, taking all the bedding, trunks clothes, etc., with them. Stewart is willing to pay a liberal reward for any information that will lead to the apprehension of the thieves.

Jno. S. Stewart, a former foreman of THE OPTIC, but now employed on the Albuquerque Democrat, was one of those who went through from the south, to attend the Denver festival. He will be drum major for the Las Vegas Military band.

Dr. W. H. Tipton has gone to Denver, called there by the illness of his son Arthur, who is down with an attack of typhoid fever.

Thirty-five persons went from here to Denver, yesterday, to attend the festival; and eighty-five passed through from the south.

The fall is here and winter is coming on. You want something for your home or for yourself. Read THE OPTIC's display advertisements. They will tell you how to get it—and how to get it cheap.

Florencio Esquivel, of San Jose, near San Miguel, this county, brought to the city a large quantity of fine apples—in fact, as fine as were ever seen in any country. Almost any of them would weigh a pound.

Yesterday a horse came near breaking its leg by getting fastened in one of the holes in the bridge between the lawns. Had it not been that a number of citizens assisted the horse in getting out, the county would no doubt have had a horse to pay for.

Every teacher and pupil in school district No. 2, East Las Vegas, has a vaccination certificate on file with the board of education. The merit of this rule of the board of education, is respectfully submitted to citizens, generally, for copying.

Among the soldiers in company B, Ninth U. S. Cavalry, who were in town, yesterday, was Edward Lyons, a cousin of Daniel Ebb, of this city. These cousins are of the same age, lacking five and a half hours, were raised together and originally went into the army together, but when they met yesterday, it was for the first time in twenty-one years. This is a part of the regiment which fought so well along side the Rough Riders in Cuba.

At the meeting of the Territorial Grand Lodge, K. of P., held in Socorro, the following officers were elected for the ensuing year: G. C. C., E. L. Browne, of Las Vegas; G. V. C., Wm. Sims, of Raton; G. P., C. C. Clark, of Magdalena; G. K. of R. and S., C. W. Adams, of Albuquerque; G. M. at A., W. Kirkpatrick, of Cerrillos; G. I. G., J. Clark, of Deming; G. O. G., G. W. Schald, of Gallup. It was decided to hold the next meeting of the grand lodge at Silver City.

WOVEN WIRE FEN

Best on Earth. Horse-shoe shape, strong, pig and chicken-tight. Our DETLEX AUTOMATIC machine makes 60 holes in 12 to 20 cts. a dozen. Size 10 styles. Catalogue. KITSELMAN BROS. Box 119, Ridgeville, Ind.

Simply apply SWAYNE'S OINTMENT. No internal medicines required. Cures tetter, eczema, itch, all eruptions on the face, hands, nose, etc., leaving the skin clear, white and healthy. Its great healing and curative powers are possessed by no other remedy. Ask your druggists for SWAYNE'S OINTMENT. 49-ly

PHOTOGRAPHS

$2.00 per Dozen.

Enlarged pictures $2.00 each. Call on or address the Plaza Studio, Las Vegas, N. M., Mrs. J. A. Rael, proprietor.